CHAPTER IV

AMENDMENT TO THE INDIAN EVIDENCE ACT, 1872

14. In the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, section 154 shall be numbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so numbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment
of section
154 of Act
1 of 1872.

"(2) Nothing in this section shall disentitle the person so permitted under sub-section (1), to rely on any part of the evidence of such witness."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

It is widely felt that criminal cases in the Courts fail because statements by witness(es) are reneged either out of fear or allurement. To prevent the evil of witness turning hostile, it is proposed to amend sections 161, 162 and 344 of, and to insert new sections 164A and 344A in, the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The amendments to the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 inter alia provide that (i) statement made to Police by any person during investigation, if reduced to writing, is to be signed and quickly transmitted to the Magistrate; (ii) recording of evidence of material witness by Magistrate in all offences punishable with death or imprisonment for 7 years or more during investigation; (iii) statement of the witness duly recorded before Magistrate under oath, in the discretion of the court, be treated as evidence; and (iv) summary trial for perjury and enhance punishment awarded consequent to such summary trial.

2. The disposal of criminal trials in the Courts takes considerable time and that in many cases trials do not commence for as long a period as 3 to 5 years after the accused was remitted to judicial custody. Large number of persons accused of criminal offences are unable to secure bail, for one reason or the other, and have to languish in jail as under-trial prisoners for years. Though not recognized so far by the criminal jurisprudence, it is seen as an alternative method to deal with huge arrears of criminal cases. To reduce the delay in the disposal of criminal trials and appeals as also to alleviate the suffering of under-trial prisoners, it is proposed to introduce the concept of plea-bargaining as recommended by the Law Commission of India in its 154th Report on the Code of Criminal Procedure. The Committee on Criminal Justice System Reforms under the Chairmanship of Dr. (Justice) V.S. Malimath, formerly Chief Justice of the Kerala High Court, has also endorsed the Commission's recommendations. It means pre-trial negotiations between defendant and prosecution during which the accused agrees to plead guilty in exchange for certain concessions by the prosecutor. The benefit of plea-bargaining would, however, not be admissible to habitual offenders. A Chapter on this is being incorporated in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

3. Section 498A of Indian Penal Code provides punishment to husband or relatives of husband of a woman subjecting her to cruelty. It has been widely reported that this provision has been misused and is also harsh as it is non-compoundable. It is, therefore, proposed to make the offence a compoundable one.

4. Section 292 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, includes only officers of the Mint or India Security Press, Nasik as experts for giving their opinion with regard to fake currency notes and coins. Expert opinion given by officers of other note printing press suffers from legal infirmity. Therefore, it is proposed to include in section 292 more scientific experts to give evidence in cases relating to fake currency notes.

5. It is also proposed to amend the Indian Penal Code to provide punishment for threatening or inducing any person to give false evidence.

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
